Tours

Additionally, it is essential to mention that the Doñana National Park is mostly surrounded by the Doñana Natural Park, which was created as a buffer zone to mitigate possible impacts on the National Park and encompasses a series of natural and cultural riches of undeniable value. It is an ideal place for Active Tourism enthusiasts, as the Natural Park offers bike lanes, extensive hiking trails, as well as horseback riding and off-road tours.

HORSEBACK RIDING

Horseback riding routes are available in the Natural Park, and the companies that offer them are:

Paso Doble:

Departing from Matalascañas, with routes along the beach and through the dunes.

ON FOOT

You can also access the National Park's beach freely, either on foot or by bike, starting from the end of the Matalascañas urbanization and following a 1.5 km wooden walkway over the shifting dunes. Lastly, several trails through fossil dunes can be explored at the Dune Park at the entrance of Matalascañas.

Tours

OFF-ROAD TOURS

To explore other ecosystems, Coop. Marismas del Rocío offers a guided tour from El Acebuche in an off-road bus with a driver-guide, covering around 70 km along the beach, dunes, forests, and marshlands of the National Park (all ecosystems).

Tours

BOAT TOUR Buque Real Fernando River Cruise

Boat tour (30 km): Departure from the Bajo Guía dock in Sanlúcar de Barrameda. This is a 3.5-hour tour along the mouth of the Guadalquivir River, with a 1-hour stop at Doñana National Park, where visitors can explore the old "Plancha" settlement (an old village of huts) and walk a trail to learn about traditional uses and local flora. The journey continues along the river to the "Salinas" (salt flats), a marshland area within the Doñana National Park, where you will spend around 30 minutes. There, you will walk a small trail to reach a birdwatching observatory for aquatic birds.
